Photo Album Overview

This shows the event flow and what scenes are shown when an event (direction arrows) happens. The storyboard below shows an example of the flow of the program.
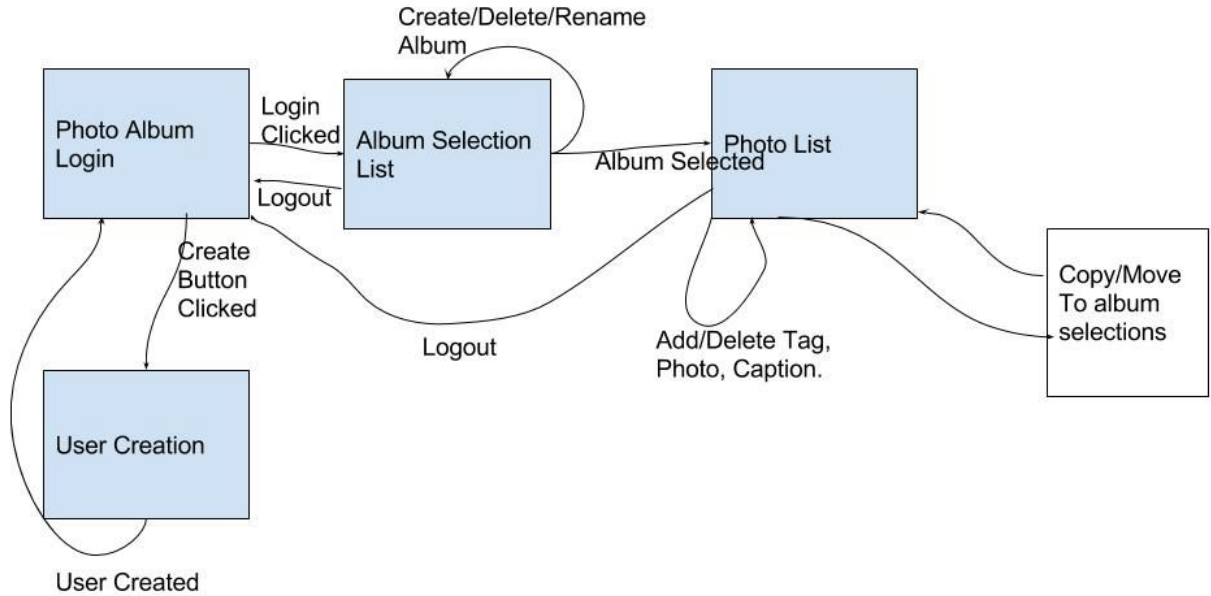

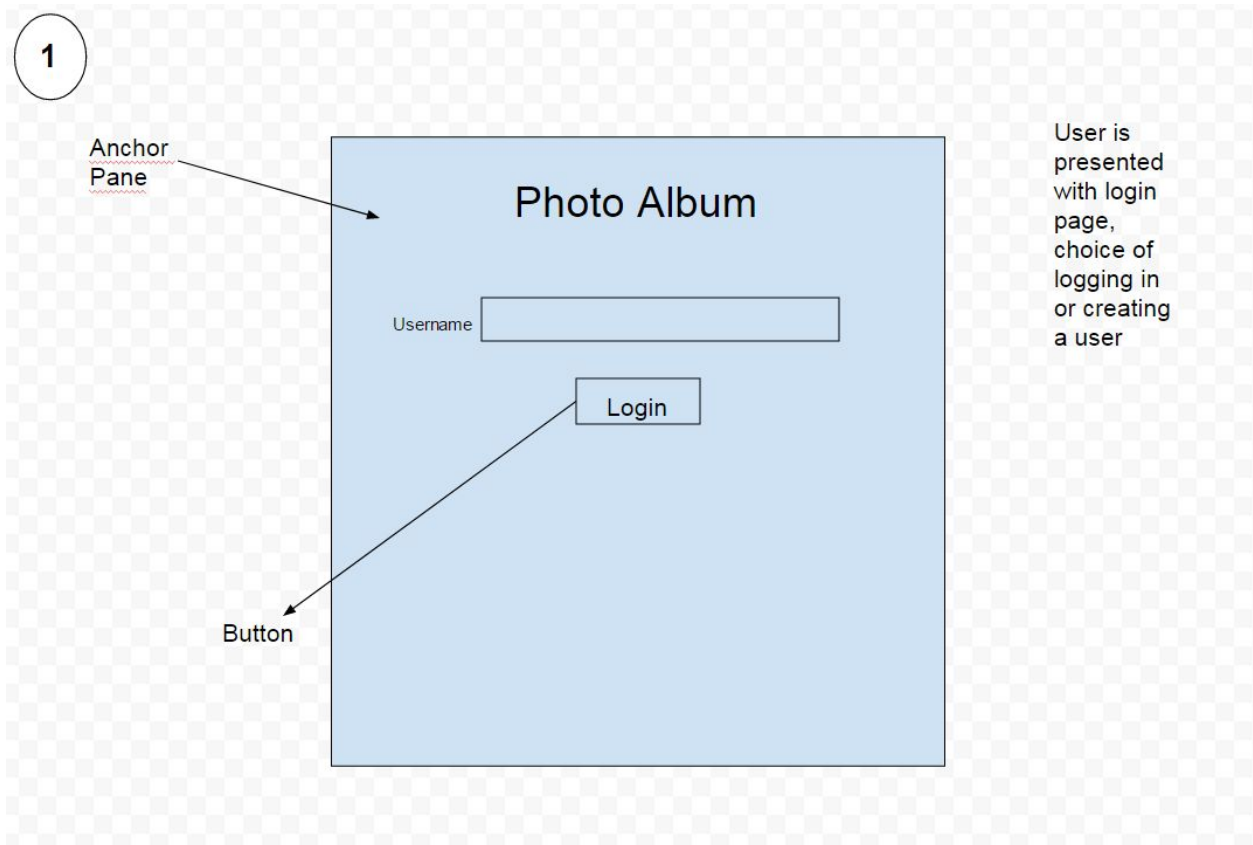

Photo Album Storyboard

1

Anchor
Pane

Photo Album

Username [   ]

[Login]

Button

User is presented with login
page,
choice of logging in or creating
a user

Photo Album Storyboard

Photo Album Storyboard

3

Anchor
Pane
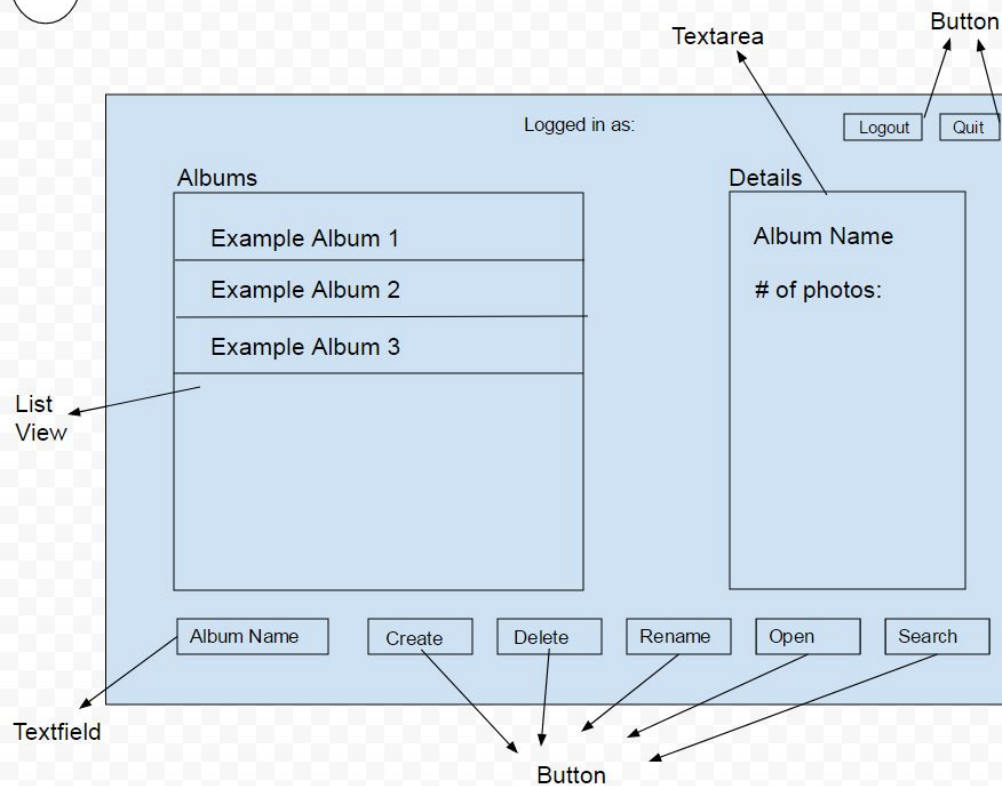

Photo Album

Username [   ]

[Login]

Button

If user is done
creating and
decides to
login

User types in the credentials
and logs in loading their
saved albums

Photo Album Storyboard

4

Textarea

Button

Logged in as:

Logout   Quit

Albums

Example Album 1

Example Album 2

Example Album 3

Details

Album Name

of photos:

List
View

Album Name   Create   Delete   Rename   Open   Search Textfield

Button

On login, The user will have a display of their saved albums which they can select to delete, or enter into the album

They can also create new albums/name them

Details regarding each album will be displayed in the textarea

Photo Album Storyboard

5

Scroll pane with a tile pane inside and an imageview inside of tile pane

Anchor Pane

Logged in as:

| Back to Albums | View as Slideshow | | Quit |

Time of Capture:

| Example photo 1 | Example photo 2 |

| Add Photo | Delete Photo | Copy Photo | Move Photo |

| Caption | | Tags |

| Save Caption | | Add Tag | Delete Tag |

List of images displayed after selecting album that has image thumbnails/tags/date

Add/Delete photo will allow user to select a photo from their computer or from list already populated

Copy To/Move To will have a dropdown list of existing albums to move/copy pictures to Save caption handles Location field

Time of capture will automatically populate according to when the photo was added

Add/Delete Tag handles Tag field.

Photo Album Storyboard

6

Button

Back to Photos

Album:

previous   next

Example photo 1

Vbox with imageview
inside

Photo Album Storyboard

(7)

Button

Back to Albums

Photo Search

Date Range

Date picker

to

Listview

Tags

Add Tag   Delete Tag

Search for Photos

Button

Photo Album Storyboard
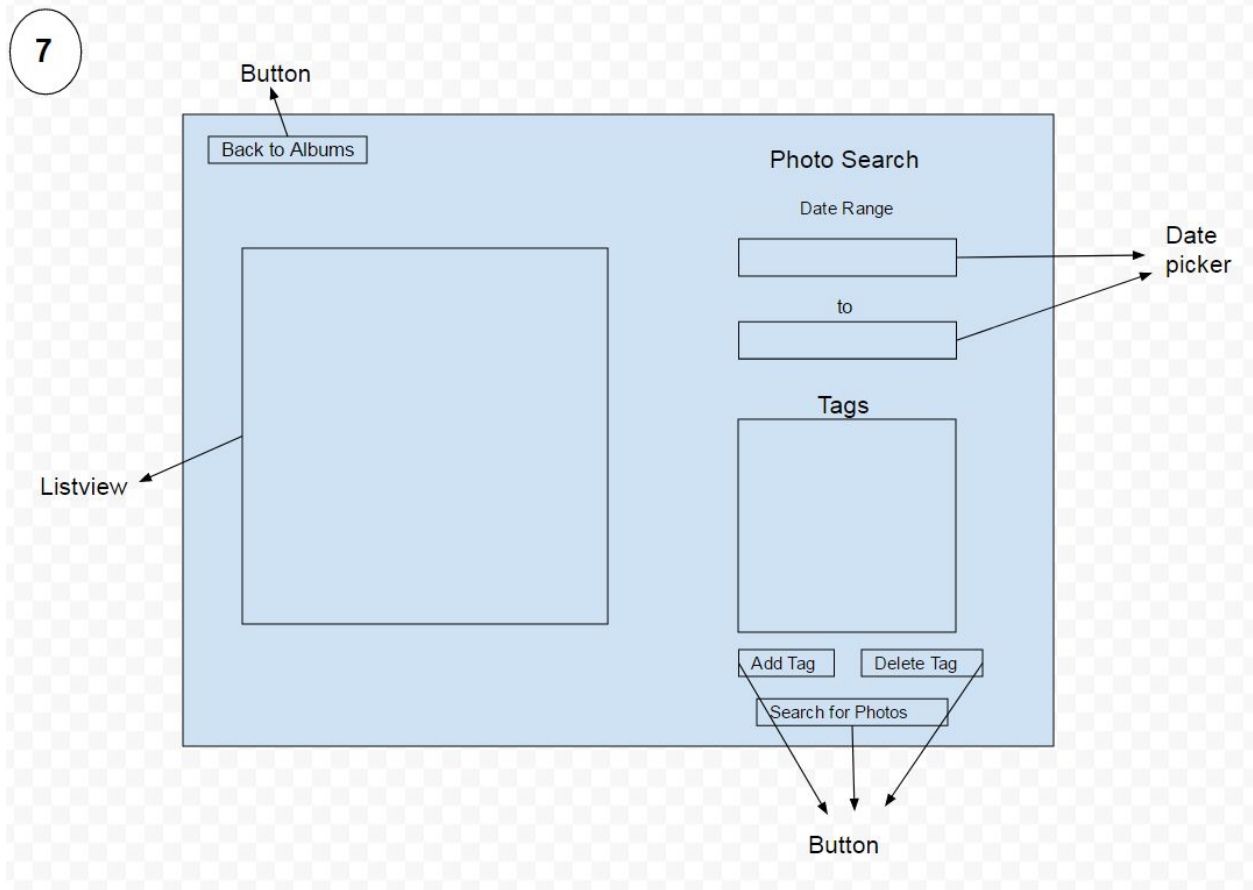

8

Anchor
Pane

Photo Album

Username [   ]

Login

Button

When user
logs out,
he/she is
presented with login page
again.